Dear Nikki:

My most sincere apologies for not presenting myself at Smith today after I had gone to so much trouble to tell you I would do so in my long letter of May 1. I hope that Joe Oakley, a fellow resident of Dunster House who was in the vicinity got in touch with you to tell you that I would be unable to come. Furthermore, I hope that this action on my part has not caused you any undue trouble and preparation.

However, I had made plans a short time ago to be in the Springfield area this coming Thursday, May 13. I shall try to get in touch with you then and, if it is convenient for you, to come out to Smith, late afternoon or early evening most likely. I am terribly sorry to be so vague. Perhaps though a week-day might be better for talking to any administrative or station personnel who might be interested in our agreement.

Let me profer my apologies again. I hope that I will be able to see you this coming Thursday and make my excuses in person as well as conduct our business.

Very truly yours,

Ira Rabkin
